

CHAY NEWMAN

Biographical Note	Chay Newman lives and works in Melbourne. She is currently studying creative writing (bachelor's) at RMIT University. Inspired by the likes of Caitlyn Siehl and Emily Dickenson, Chay focuses on epic poetry and long-form prosaic stories.
Education and Qualifications	2024 - Bachelor of Arts (Creative Writing)
Publications	2022 - 'Lungs' (short story) in Hurt and Comfort: An Anthology published by TheWhumpyPrintingPress 2022 - 'Sins' (poem) in Issue 5: Curtain Call published by RMIT Catalyst 2023 - 'The Nightingale' (film review) in Best Australian Films You've Never Seen published by AFI Research Collective, RMIT's Writing and Publishing, &amp; Cinema Studies Associates 2024 - 'He's Changed' (short story) in Gateway published by The Bowen Street Press 2024 - 'love-me-not love stories from an aromantic asexual' (short creative nonfiction) in Angst published by The Bowen Street Press
Website	https://github.com/cyanicain/EXPERIMENT-6-artist-s-cv
Social Media	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Instagram: cyanicain</li></ul>
Awards and Prizes	2020 - Academic Excellence Award - English 2020 - Academic Excellence Award - Media